

Come see some amazing art in Copenhagen this Winter season...

Student Gallery has existed since 2009 and started as a collaboration between a group of students and the Faculty of Arts Library, University of Copenhagen.

The Student Gallery has opened exhibits at both the Faculty of Arts library on the Amager campus and now also at Studenterhuset. This Winter's exhibition deals with themes of eroticism, embodiment and identity. Participating artists work with many different materials including: embroidery, drawing, painting, installation, notes, photos, audio and video. The jury consists of members from the Student Gallery: Pia Wulff, Mille Højerslev Nielsen, Anita Hvonbech Pedersen and Ditlev Grønning Gert Andersen, and assistant professor of art history Lundbye Ann Sorensen

Some works to see..

Fogged by Sara Lubich

This work is part of a larger series called 'Floating Underneath', which deals with existentialism in a poetic form. The works in the series illustrate moments of states associated with the sometimes difficult and challenging task to navigate through life.

"The art I encountered was amazing, and dealt with many idea's and problems that students deal with on a daily basis" - Emma

Mutino